

Benefits of Membership

Receive our Bi-Monthly “The New Jersey Planner” newsletter.

Our Planner newsletter is published six times a year. This 16 page periodical contains articles concerning the latest in land use news from across the state, keeps readers informed on recent case law as well as highlighting little known areas unique to New Jersey.

Discounts on all New Jersey Planning Officials Publications.

NJPO members enjoy discounts on all of our publications. NJPO members save anywhere from 15 to 30 percent over nonmember rates.

Free American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP) continuing education (CM) Credits.

To maintain your AICP certification, the American Planning Association requires planners to take 32 credits worth of Certificate Maintenance Credits (CMs). Every year, NJPO offers between 18 to 24 AICP CM credits at the League of Municipalities Conference in Atlantic City. These credits are FREE to all our professional planners. Better yet, as a member, you could teach the class, and gain an extra hour worth of credit per class!

Free Webinars

NJPO produces webinars on a variety of land use issues, from what is expected of a new board member to how to read a site plan. These webinars are FREE to all NJPO members. Do you want to share your expertise? Become a presenter of a webinar and get your name in front of board members from around the state.

Authoring Articles

Our newsletter “The New Jersey Planner” is published six times a year. Our publication distribution exceeds 7,000 readers throughout the State of New Jersey. What is better than reading our newsletter? Someone quoting you from our newsletter. What a great way to share your expertise with board members.

Lecture with New Jersey Planning Officials

Our instructors are highly praised and offer their knowledge to new and experienced board members. These highly sought after positions are reserved for NJPO professionals who are the top in their fields.
